

Brooklyn Colonel And Captain Killed By Aerial Bombs

Clayton and Bullock, of Quartermaster's Department, Listed as Slain

Former a West Pointer

Subordinate Was Secretary of N. Y. Municipal Railway
Corporation

The names of two Brooklyn men, Colonel Bertram T. Clayton and Captain Harry A. Bullock, appeared yesterday among those named in the casualty list as killed in action. Both were in the quartermaster's department, both were occupying the same quarters, both were killed by aerial bombs, and it is believed that the same bomb killed both.

Colonel Clayton had served one term as a Representative in Congress from a Brooklyn district, was the organizer and first captain of Troop C, and had been colonel of the 14th Regiment, of Brooklyn. He also had served as adjutant of the old 13th Regiment.

He was born in Clayton, Ala., in 1862. His father, Henry De Lamar Clayton, was a Southern major general in the Civil War. He was graduated from West Point in 1886, but in 1890 he resigned from the army to enter business. He maintained his interest in military affairs, however, being prominent for many years in National Guard organizations of Brooklyn. He commanded Troop C during the Spanish War and was appointed to a captaincy in the regular army by President McKinley, serving in the Philippine Islands, San Francisco and Panama. From the Canal Zone he was transferred to the quartermaster's department at this post, shortly before being sent to France.

His brother, Henry D. Clayton, a Federal judge, lives in Clayton, Ala. Colonel Clayton was married to Louise M. Brasher, of Brooklyn, in 1887. They were divorced in 1902. Five years later he married Mary D. Watson, of New Orleans.

Bullock Well Known

Captain Bullock was secretary of the New York Municipal Railway Corporation, a part of the Brooklyn Rapid Transit system. He had been on leave of absence since May, 1917, when he went to the Plattsburg training camp.

He was born in Northampton, Mass., in 1878, was graduated from Amherst College in 1899, and became a reporter on newspapers, first in New Haven, then in Boston, and finally joined the staff of "The New York Times." Articles which he wrote concerning traction, insurance and other investigations resulted in his being called to the Brooklyn Rapid Transit to act as special investigator for Timothy S. Williams, president of the company. That was in 1911, and shortly afterward he became secretary of the New York Municipal Railways Corporation.

In Brooklyn Captain Bullock's home was in the Hotel Touraine. He is survived by two sisters, Miss Grace F. Bullock, of 211 West Eighty-fifth Street, and Mrs. Emerson Kimball, of Concord, N. H., and two brothers, Professor Charles J. Bullock, of Harvard, and Edward Bullock.

Another Brooklyn Casualty

Corporal Walter J. Dixon, whose name also appeared among those killed, lived with his mother, Mrs. Anna J. Dixon, at 1874 Sixty-fifth Street, Brooklyn.

She was on her way to Boston yesterday when the War Department telegram was delivered at her home. Her son enlisted in April 1916 and went to France with the original Pershing expedition.

Lieutenant Robert Baker McDowell, of Jersey City, reported captured, is a Plattsburg graduate, twenty-four years old. He was married in December and went to France in January.

Frederick Dondero, of Flushing, Queens, who died from meningitis, was a corporal in a Camp Upton regiment. He was drafted last fall. He was employed by the Long Island Railroad.

PATERSON, N. J., June 5.—Mrs. Mary Hancock, of 60 Marshall Street, has received word that her son, John E. Hancock, was seriously wounded in France. Hancock was a private in an engineer unit. He enlisted soon after the declaration of war.

Britain Threatens Reprisal on Prisoners

LONDON, June 5.—The sentence passed by a German court martial in March on several British officers who were prisoners of war at Clausen has called from the British government a definite threat of reprisals. The following announcement was made on the subject by the House of Commons:

"In the opinion of His Majesty's government the sentence of seven months' imprisonment passed by the German authorities on these officers for an attempt which was incidental to an attempt to escape is in direct contravention of Paragraph 16 of The Hague agreement."

"The Netherlands Minister at Berlin has been requested to take any action possible to secure a reduction of the sentences and to inform the German government that His Majesty's government will be forced to interpret this paragraph in a manner similar to that in which it has been interpreted by the German authorities in the case of these officers. The latter gives an assurance that such breaches of the agreement shall not recur."

Kaiser Views Ruin On West Battlefront

AMSTERDAM, June 5.—Field Marshal von Hindenburg accompanied the German Emperor on his tour Saturday of the newly gained territory between the Chemin des Dames and the River Vesle, according to the description written by Karl Rosner, of the "Lokal Anzeiger." The two military chiefs first visited the headquarters of General von Boehm, commander in chief of the army fighting on the Marne, and received reports on the situation.

Then the party visited Pinon and the L'aux-Condé region, then going further south to a recently captured hill where they could see the fighting west of Soissons. After going to Fere-en-Tardenois to view the captured territory as far as the Oure the Emperor returned to headquarters by way of Flannes.

3 Killed in French Air Crash

PARIS, June 5.—Three French aviators, named Gaillaux, Hutin and Flamand, were killed at the Ambergie airfield to-day when two airplanes collided just as they were about to land after a trial flight.

Germans Decry Foes For Heeding the Pope

By George F. Stewart

(Special Cable to The Tribune)

ROTTERDAM, June 5.—It is impossible to find in the German press any friendly recognition of the Entente governments' acceptance of the Pope's request not to bomb Cologne on Corpus Christi day.

The following, from the "Dusseldorfer Nachrichten," is characteristic: "It is typical of the spirit of the English that such a request was not granted on humane or religious grounds, but only because military interests were involved."

Drive Against Italy Is Expected Soon

(Special Dispatch to The Tribune)

WASHINGTON, June 5.—An official dispatch from Rome to-day indicates the Austro-Hungarian offensive against Italy will be started in a few days. It says:

"War correspondents report the enemy continues to concentrate large numbers of troops on our front, and everything indicates the battle begun in France soon will spread to the Piave front. Military authorities have definitely recognized sixty Austrian divisions distributed in three distinct lines, but there is reason to believe there are more."

The Casualty List
